Interview to the Vet

Vet Nemoto Koko

- Q. Why did you start the clinic for animals in Omishima?
- A. Because there was not one, though a lot of islanders keep pets. So I hope to help the residents and their pets.
- Q. Why did you decide to be a vet?
- A. I wanted to learn a trade, and was fascinated by this job, which helps both animals and people.
- Q. Do you have hobbies?
- A. I've been practicing hula for years. Also, I like watching pro-baseball games and sumo on TV.
- Q. What was your first pet animal?
- A. It was Rimi, a rosy-faced lovebird. I'm a big lover of birds.

«Information»

This restaurant is run by a family. They named it Yoshikawa after the surname of their uncle.

«Good Points of Omishima»

People are kind, and we can do what we can't do in big cities.

«My Dream»

To have a restaurant where I can talk with every customer. However, I'll keep on working here for the moment.

The seafood bowl is good!

Local fish are cooked. They are worth eating many times!

«Information»

It's a 42-year-old "Okonomiyaki" shop. It was named after the Big Gateway to Oyamazumi Shrine, close to the shop.

«Good Point of Omishima»

People are warmhearted. I've never thought of opening my shop outside Omishima.

«About Her Hair Color»

I dye my hair every other month. It looks cool, right?

Modern-Yaki

The quality and quantity are perfect. Three stars can be awarded. ☆☆☆
